

PLEASE POST

PLEASE POST

NOVEMBER 2017

To: Building Principals
NFT President
Dr. Lorrie Rodrigue

Title of Vacancy: Library Media Specialist

School of Vacancy: Newtown Middle School

Starting Date: Late January 2018

Qualifications:

- Connecticut Certification for School Library Media Specialist
- Strong knowledge and background in working with teachers and students to integrate all facets of a middle school curriculum
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Strong interpersonal relationship skills
- Leadership skills in conducting workshops and developing new projects within the school
- Ability to develop and teach technology research skills
- Expertise in online research skills and wireless technology
- Ability to set up a vision for the use of technology throughout the Middle school curricular offerings.

Remuneration: Teacher salary agreement-appropriate track and step

Responsibilities:

- To carry out all the duties and responsibilities designated in the current Library Media Specialist job description and the current teacher job description
- To be involved in the development and implementation of an integrated technology center in the library
- To train students and staff in the use of the various forms of gathering information
- To instruct students to read and write critically
- To oversee the purchase, storage and distribution of all library media equipment
- To work as a department member and a member of a faculty

If interested in this position, please apply on line through the following link by December 15, 2017

<http://www.applitrack.com/newtown/onlineapp/>

The Newtown Public School District is committed to a policy of equal opportunity/affirmative action for all qualified persons and equal access to Boy Scouts of America and other designated youth groups. The Newtown Public School District does not discriminate in any employment practice, education program, or educational activity on the basis of race, color, religious creed, sex, age, national origin, ancestry, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability (including, but not limited to, intellectual disability, past or present history of mental disorder, physical disability or learning disability), genetic information, or any other basis prohibited by Connecticut state and/or federal nondiscrimination laws. The Newtown Public School District does not unlawfully discriminate in employment and licensing against qualified persons with a prior criminal conviction.