

Anne Murray M.Ed. OTR/L

Occupational Therapist Registered and Licensed

Mrs. Murray received her undergraduate degree from Fairfield University with a major in Biology and a minor in Psychology. She received her Masters of Education degree in Occupational Therapy from Springfield College. In the past ten years, she has worked in pediatrics both in the Birth to Three Program and in the educational setting. This is Mrs. Murray's sixth year working in the Newtown Public Schools.

Mrs. Murray has attended a variety of continuing education courses. She has sought out classes in Sensory Processing and Integration, Yoga for developmentally challenged students, Handwriting skills, and School based Occupational Therapy intervention. Mrs. Murray enjoys working with the transdisciplinary teams at each school.

Mrs. Murray lives in Danbury with her wonderful husband, son and two cats. She enjoys traveling, skiing, going to the beach, cooking, jewelry making, crafts and reading. She loves spending time with her son making Legos, playing games, reading, cooking, and watching his soccer games. She especially loves snow days when she can spend extra quality time with her son.

Mrs. Murray works part time and travels between several schools including: Sandy Hook, Reed Intermediate, Newtown Middle School, and Newtown High School. She can be reached at murraya@newtown.k12.ct.us.
